Accreditation: This course has been approved for 9 hours recommended study credits by the College of Family Physicians of Canada.

Program Changes

The following are changes to the original program (note: not including changes of presenters):

3j: Faculty-in-Residence Program

Cancelled.

7a: Another Day Older and Deeper in Debt

Description changed to:

This panel discussion examines the challenges facing today's student in repaying their student loans, explores why problems may exist, and suggests some workable strategies to alleviate the burden of student indebtedness.

8f: Balancing Rights & Responsibilites in Campus Media

Title changed to:

Whose Freedoms? Balancing Rights and Responsibilities in an Academic Setting

9a: The Feds, the Provinces and Student Aid: Is the Partnership Working?

Cancelled

9b: The Guelph Experience: Follow-up Roundtables

Cancelled

9d: Program Development: 'Watch us Grow'

Cancelled

12b: RESP's: Old and New Models

Changed to:

Selecting an RESP: A Taxing Problem

Lucy McInnes, Spectrum Mutual Fund Services
David Summers, Canadian Scholarship Trust Foundation
Moderator: David Sidebottom, University of Toronto

An examination of different tax-sheltered approaches which can be used by families to save for a post-secondary education. How changes announced in February's federal budget have affected these plans.

13d: Guelph Student Athlete Development Program

Moved to 3j.

OCHA Administrative Divisional Meeting

Moved to Wednesday, 12:00 - 1:30

Tour of Skydome

☆ SESSION 11 & SESSION 10

Sessions 10 and 11 have been reversed. Session 10 will now be at 10:45 on Wednesday. Session 11 will now be at 9:00 on Wednesday. Session numbers remain the same.

Program Additions

The following sessions have been added since the printing of the original program (refer to the main body of this program for room and time):

8k: The Academic Enhancement Program: Phase Two

Jane Drover, Mount Allison University
Brian McMillan, Mount Allison University
Alexander Wilson, Mount Allison University

A three-year project to enhance learning strategies of first year students. Last year we presented results of Phase One modules: Listening and Notemaking; Critical Reading; Time Management. This year we present results of Phase Two modules: Critical Thinking; Writing; Examination and Test-taking. We also examine issues critical to support of learning strategies programs. Finally, we present information on usefulness of these materials for students with learning difficulties.

9d: Everything You Wanted to Know But Were Afraid to Ask About Opening a New Child Care Centre

Judy Myhill, University of Guelph

Planning considerations for day care for a diverse, multi-cultural university and local community. The University of Guelph Child Care Centre is non-profit and university-supported, for 104 children, on a full-time/part-day/part-week basis.

11h: Success Program for Disabled Students

Jacklin H. Andrews, University of Saskatchewan

Disabled students need insight into personal strengths and weaknesses and appreciation of the structure of educational institutions to succeed. This month-long program offers them help. It has three components: simulation of classroom experience; assessment by psychologists and occupational therapists; and communal residence experience.
